What is Included in Foundation COVID-19 Services?

Plan

Making a plan for coronavirus will help save time and stress. Knowing what to expect and how to prepare is the first step. We help you develop a coronavirus action plan for your business and your employees guided by expert-led research and real-time updates from the CDC, the NIH and more.

Respond

The pandemic has brought so much uncertainty. Even in the most stressful of circumstances — like navigating an outbreak, employee mental health, and financial challenges — we help you develop a game plan for how to respond.

Manage

As this situation develops, we help you manage your changing circumstances. We help you make intelligent choices to prioritize the health of your business and employees and stop the spread of the virus to the larger community. We'll also provide resources and support to help you manage stress and mental health within your organization.

Support

Looking to the future can be especially challenging today. The resources we provide from coronavirus experts and trusted sources will help you find the answers to your most essential questions, ensuring you can navigate the coming months.
